

Current responsibilities in operating licensed premises

Tuesday 31 May 2011

7.15am for a 7.30am start

In May 2007 the new Liquor Control Act introduced many innovations affecting the way licensed premises should be operated. Since then further legislation coupled with new licensing authority policies have meant the responsibilities of licensees as well as the role of the licensing authority have continued to change.

You are invited to attend a seminar to address these issues.

Janine Belling, director licensing and Leigh Radis, senior inspector, from the licensing authority will update licensees as to their current duties and obligations.

There will be an opportunity for participants' queries to be answered.
